In 1964, Chief Justice Earl Warren (with then-Congressman Gerald Ford looking on) handed over to President Johnson his commission's report, which branded Lee Harvey Oswald the lone assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

Today, mounting evidence indicates that there was a conspiracy—and that Oswald was almost certainly a US intelligence operative.

Cover Photo by Wide World